Dear Parents / Guardian,

Parenting Workshop: Plugged-In Parenting

Synopsis:

In today's multi-media world where many of our children are media and digital natives, the media can be an ally, a teaching aid and also a source of conflict or a convenient "babysitter". This talk will help parents decide where to draw the line and guide their children. Get plugged-in on the why and how to use the media to pull your family together, rather than let it push you apart.

At the end of the talk, parents will:

- understand the impact of various forms of media and how it affects children's perceptions, attitudes and behaviours;
- know how to make rules without making enemies;
- use practical skills to engage with their children and leverage on media and technology

Speaker:

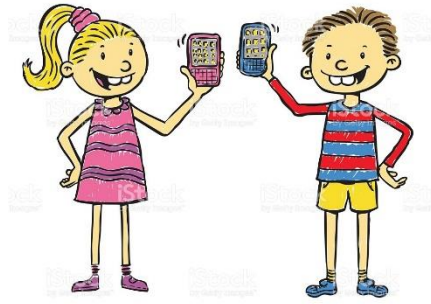

Ms Shelen Ang is passionate about building strong families. Shelen holds a Master of Arts in Education, and is accredited in the T-JTA (Taylor-Johnson Temperament Analysis) and PREPARE/ENRICH inventories, and is equipped to do marital profiling and couple assessment.

Shelen has conducted numerous family life education talks and workshops for corporate companies, schools and the community. She has also been interviewed in the media for marriage and parenting related topics. Shelen has spoken at boutique and large events, including being the Mandarin keynote speaker for the National Marriage Convention in 2010, as well as speaking on parenting at the National Play Day in 2015.

Being effectively bilingual, Shelen is able to deliver talks and facilitate workshops in both Mandarin and English. Coupled with her bubbly personality and outgoing nature, she is an engaging and dynamic speaker.
